9 vs.

10 MAJESTIC BEHAVIORAL HEALTH,

11 Defendant.

Case No.: 2:13-cv-01969-RCJ-NJK

ORDER

13 This case arises out of a dispute over the quality of mental health services. The Court
14 dismissed the case for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. Plaintiff has filed three Motions for 15 Writ of Mandamus (ECF Nos. 55, 62, 63) in which he asks the Court to require Defendant to
16 turn over certain records to him, as well as a Motion to Compel (ECF No. 56), in which he asks
17 the Court to order Defendant's counsel to obtain certain pleadings in the case. The Court denies
18 the motions. There is no case pending, and the Court has no continuing jurisdiction over a case
19 that was dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. In any case, the Court cannot issue a
20 writ of mandamus as to Defendant, as it is not a federal employee or official. See 28 U.S.C.
21 § 1361.

CONCLUSION

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motions for Writ of Mandamus (ECF Nos. 55, 62, 63) and the Motion to Compel (ECF No. 56) are DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: July 29, 2014.
